Jeffrey Hurlock commits to Emory and Henry College

FSCI proudly announces that Jeffrey Hurlock will play for the Emory and Henry College men's soccer program in 2018. Emory and Henry College is a NCAA Division 3 school located in Emory VA.

Jeffrey has been a member of the FSCI Phoenix travel soccer program for 7 years from 2011 to 2018. Jeffrey is a versatile player that can play as a striker or anywhere in the midfield in our boys 2000 age group. He attends Courtland High School.

Jeffrey's high school GPA is 3.9. He was in the National Honor Society and consistently made honor roll. His nickname is "El Jefe" which is Spanish for "the boss".

- Coach Marcello Manzano states the following: "Jeff's love of the game and competitiveness shows on the field. He is a versatile player that can function as a target striker because of his ability to shield the ball and distribute or function in the midfield because of his vision and awareness. This versatility will serve well at the next level. I am happy that I have had an opportunity to coach Jeffrey over the years"
- Coach Donnie Wheeler states the following: "I have had the privilege to coach Jeff for the last few years. Jeff is a true student athlete, one who does very well in the classroom and very well on the field. Jeff has good vision on the field and is always looking to score or to help the team have an opportunity to score. He will be a good addition to the Emory and Henry soccer program and he will excel in the classroom as he prepares for the future. He has been a blessing in my life."
